DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

a. The following claims are vague, indefinite, awkwardly, and confusingly worded:

- i. The preamble is awkwardly worded because "arrangement" this does not have to be a device or apparatus, furthermore, it could be a method or process.
- ii. The claims are indefinite because is not clear if the wiper and wiper blade are being claimed because in the dependent claims both parts are further limited.
- iii. The are not articles in the preambles of the claims such as "A, An and The for the dependent claims".
- iv. Applicant should change "characterized" to comprising or wherein to be consistent with standard U.S. practice.
- v. IN claim 3 "its" and "it" is recited and it is not clear what limitation is being referred and weather there is proper antecedent basis for the limitation. The limitations must be clearly recited.

Art Unit: 3723

- vi. Claims 6-7 and 11 "it" is recited and it is not clear what limitation is being referred and whether there is proper antecedent basis for the limitation. The limitations must be clearly recited.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Roodt (6789289).

Roodt discloses an arrangement or wiper system having a wiper blade (24), a catch hook (62), an arm (10), plug in axis (22), and bushing (50).

4. Claims 3- 20, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by De Block et al (6910244).

De Block et al discloses an arrangement or wiper system having a wiper blade (30), a catch hook (62) also being a trough, an arm (12), a second coupling (14), a plug in axis (36), bushing (34) with groove (50), and a bow or locking pin/heel (44), and a cover (32).

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The 892 form discloses prior art being made of record.
